

WEBINAR

Food and nutrition essentials in COVID-19

Date: Thursday, 14th May 2020

14:00-16:30 Brazzaville || 16:00-18:30 Moscow & Nairobi
15:00-17:30 Geneva & Harare || 14:00-16:30 London
13:00-15:30 Accra & Dakar || 09:00-11:30 New York

Languages: English, French and Portuguese

Register here: https://zoom.us/webinar/register/WN_7wkVum4mRs-jGhe_zmj5fA

Topics

- Nutrition for infection prevention and the management of patients with mild infection
- Nutritional management of severe and critical cases
- COVID-19 impact on food security and food systems: lessons for the future
- Food safety concerns in COVID-19
- Essential nutrition services that must be maintained in the COVID-19 response
- Q&A on the guidance for infant and young child feeding in COVID-19

Speakers

Moderator

Dr Adelheid Onyango, WHO AFRO

Team Lead, Nutrition and Food Safety

Speakers

Dr João Breda, WHO EURO

Head, WHO European Office for Prevention and Control of Noncommunicable Diseases

Dr John Adabie Appiah, WHO AFRO

Senior Specialist, Critical Care and Head of Paediatric Intensive Care Unit
Komfo Anokye Teaching Hospital , Accra Ghana

Dr Mphumuzi Sukati, FAO RAF

Senior Nutrition and Food Systems Officer

Dr Peter Ben Embarek, WHO HQ

Manager, WHO International Food Safety Authorities Network (INFOSAN)

Dr Gertrude Avortri, WHO AFRO

Medical Officer, Integrated Service Delivery and Primary Health Care

Dr Larry Grummer-Strawn, WHO HQ

Coordinator, Food and Nutrition Actions in Health Systems

Dr Aashima Garg, UNICEF HQ

Nutrition Specialist

Dr France Begin, UNICEF HQ

Senior Nutrition Adviser, Early Childhood Nutrition